Eurohypo again selected as the world's best bank in real estate finance

- Eurohypo wins "Euromoney Awards of Excellence" in several further categories
- CEO Knobloch: market honours Eurohypo's strategy and business model

Eschborn. Eurohypo has been selected as the world's best bank in real estate finance for the second time in succession. The bank defended first place in the category "Best Global Commercial Bank in Real Estate", ahead of HSBC and SEB, in the "Real Estate Awards for Excellence 2007" awarded by the renowned publication "Euromoney".

In addition, Eurohypo secured the gold medal this year in the regions of Western Europe, Central and Eastern Europe, Germany, France, Spain, Russia, Turkey, Poland, Hungary, Austria, Finland, Greece, Croatia and Slovenia.

Eurohypo's CEO Bernd Knobloch attaches particular importance to the award of best real estate bank in Germany. Eurohypo achieved the top spot in its domestic market for the third time in succession.

What is special about the Euromoney Real Estate Awards is the fact that the winners of the individual categories were established on the basis of a detailed survey of real estate developers and real estate financiers, which means that the awards are granted directly by the market.

"The results show that our consistent strategy and our dynamic business being honoured on the market," Eurohypo CEO Bernd Knobloch said. "We offer our customers, now in 28 countries across the world, all variants of real estate financing from one source as the result of our close and intensively maintained relationships."

These achievements testify to Eurohypo having the highest degree of innovation in its provision of capital for ambitious real estate projects and a fundamental understanding of the needs of the real estate industry. The presentation of the awards will take place in London on September 25.
