Eurohypo appoints a new Head for Corporate Banking Continental Europe

- Stéphane R. Adolf succeeds Hartwig Glatzki

Eschborn. Stéphane R. Adolf (45) is the new Head of the Commercial Real Estate Banking Continental Europe division at Eurohypo AG, Eschborn. He succeeds Hartwig Glatzki who after 28 years of employment at the bank will take early retirement. Mr Adolf is an experienced expert with long-standing and diverse knowledge in real estate financing. He headed the Credit Risk Management Europe division at Eurohypo from June 2009 and prior to this spent two years developing the Real Estate Finance Asia/Pacific division as divisional head. After completing his course of study in business administration at the École Supérieure de Commerce in Bordeaux, he began his professional career in 1989 in the commercial real estate financing area at Banque Hypothécaire Européenne in Paris. In 1995 Mr Adolf moved to Eurohypo and has performed a number of functions here since then.

Mr Adolf, a native-born Frenchman, is married and has two children.

"We are very proud to have once again been able to fill a key position with an employee from our own ranks. Stéphane Adolf is a recognised expert who feels equally at home in sales and in risk management of our bank. I am looking forward to working together with Stéphane Adolf in his new position", said Dr Frank Pörschke, CEO of Eurohypo. "At the same time, the Board of Managing Directors would like to thank Hartwig Glatzki for his many years of commitment for the bank. Thanks to his extensive experience in the area of international real estate business and his high level of expertise, we have been able to strengthen the presence of our bank in Continental Europe." Mr Glatzki started at the Eurohypo predecessor, Rheinhyp, in 1983 and following the merger in 2002 was responsible for Eurohypo's commercial real estate business in Continental Europe. From 2006 he held the position of Head of Corporate and Investment Banking Continental Europe and Latin America.
